LIBRARY

REPORT OF ANDREW KEOGH, Librarian.

To the President and Fellows of Yale University:

GENTLEMEN:

I HAVE the honor to report on the work of the University Library during the academic year 1929-30. The report is purposely brief, because at the end of the year the time and attention of the Library staff was given to planning the transfer to the Sterling Memorial Library rather than to a review of the past. Next year the results of a systematic study of the Library will be presented.

THE GROWTH OF THE LIBRARY

THE volumes added to the General Library numbered 39,346, about 3,000 more than in the previous year. The pamphlets numbered 8,839, making the total 48,185, as compared with 43,257 pieces last year. The usual statistics of School and Departmental libraries are appended.

GIFTS

One of the most important gifts of the year was the John Camp Williams copy of the Tacitus Opera, printed in Venice about 1473, presented to the library through the generosity of a group of alumni: Starling W. Childs, B.A. 1891, Douglas M. Moffat, B.A. 1903, Albert M. Todd, Professor Chauncey Brewster Tinker, B.A. 1899, Dean Clarence W. Mendell, B.A. 1904, and the late May Humphreys, B.A. 1890. This first Tacitus is a fine copy, and one of the few that could possibly be purchased for the Library.

Professor Frederick Bliss Luquiens, B.A. 1897, gave 170 volumes of Latin Americana, and Ernesto Stelling, B.S. 1924, sent as a gift 291 volumes, representing the works of 174 Venezuelan authors.

Other gifts included A Collection of Bacchanalian Songs, London, 1729, and A Choice Collection of Poetry . . . Collected by Joseph Yarrow, York, 1738, from Mr. Charles B.

Case; the Faksimile-Ausgabe des Mischnacodex Kaufmann, from Dr. George Alexander Kohut; James Cleland's Heropaideia; or the Institution of a Young Noble Man, Oxford, 1607, and Jeremy Taylor's Via Intelligentiae: a Sermon, London, 1662, from Dr. James Hosmer Penniman, B.A. 1884, who continued throughout the year his usual generosity to the Penniman Memorial Library of Education; eight volumes of the Descriptive Catalogue of the Hallwyl Collection, from the Right Honorable the Countess Wilhelmina von Hallwyl, of Stockholm; a specially autographed copy of The Book of Christopher Columbus, from the author, the French Ambassador to the United States; the first two volumes of the Monumenti dell' Antichità Cristiana edited by Giuseppe Wilpert, and published under the auspices of the Pontificio Istituto di Archeologia Cristiana, from Mr. John J. Raskob; several publications of the Ikutoku Foundation, through the courtesy of the Marquis Maëda; Félicien Leuridant's La Bibliothèque du Château de Beloeil, from Prince Albert de Ligne, the Belgian Ambassador to the United States; three editions of Ruskin's Harbours of England with engravings by J. M. W. Turner, the privately printed Letter of William Blake, and the Catalogue of the R. B. Adam Library Relating to Dr. Samuel Johnson and His Era, three volumes, from Mr. Robert Borthwick Adam, M.A. Hon. 1930; several privately printed books describing her collection, from Mrs. Bella C. Landauer; Dryden's All for Love, printed by John Henry Nash, together with a facsimile of the 1678 edition, from Mr. William Andrews Clark, Jr.; and eight of his own publications, for the most part issued in limited editions, from Mr. Douglas C. McMurtrie.

Among the manuscripts received were three volumes of the Records of the Moral Society, and the Constitution and By-Laws and Record of Transactions of the Rhetorical Society of the Theological Department in Yale College, from Mr. Morgan B. Brainard, B.A. 1900.

The chief purchases with the gift of money from Mr. Leonard C. Hanna, Jr., of the Class of 1913, were Les Costumes Regionaux de la France and the further volumes of the George Eumorfopoulos Collection of Chinese Bronzes.

From Mr. Francis P. Garvan, B.A. 1897, came the C. R. G. R. Schwerdt Hunting, Hawking, Shooting, illustrated in a Catalogue of Books, three volumes, and several other volumes dealing with hunting in general.

Mr. Edgar H. Wells gave $25.00 for the purchase of books; Mr. Samuel R. Betts, B.A. 1875, $500 for the expense of the Yale University Library Gazette; and Dr. James C. Greenway, B.A. 1900, and Mrs. Greenway, $900 for the purchase of three letters of Washington Irving.

A bequest of $1,000 from Mr. George W. Baldwin, B.A. 1853, was received, and by bequest from Professor Theodore S. Woolsey $15,000 has been added to his fund for the purchase of books on international law, diplomatic history, and collections of treaties. Mr. Starling W. Childs also added $110,000 to his fund in memory of his father, Albert H. Childs, B.A. 1861. A fund of $1,000 has also been established as a memorial to Mr. Ganson Goodyear Depew, B.A. 1919, through his classmates, Hamilton Hadley and Barclay Robinson. Other Library funds increased during the year through the Endowment of 1926 were the Frank Altschul Fund, $425; Henry Belin, Jr., Memorial Fund, $3,000; George Parnily Day Fund, $1,620; J. Benjamin Dimmick Fund, $200; Ellsworth Eliot Fund, $2,500; Marjorie Walter Goodhart Fund, $1,010; John Kean Memorial Fund, $10,000; and the Samuel Amos York Fund, $500.

PURCHASES

The more important purchases of the year, aside from the ordinary new publications of various kinds, came, for the most part, from the library of the late John Camp Williams, which was sold at auction in November, 1929. These included the Holinshed Chronicles of England, Scotlande, and Ireland, two volumes, London, 1577; and Sir John Harington's translation of Ariosto's Orlando Furioso, London, 1591, both purchased from the Childs Fund.

With the Altschul Fund were bought Caesarius de Heisterbach Dialogus Miraculorum, Cologne, 1481, and Vincent de Beauvais Speculum Doctrinale, Strassburg, ca. 1474; with the DeSilver Fund, John Dalton A New System of Chemical Philosophy, Manchester, 1808-1810, and Lavoisier Traité Élémentaire de Chimie, Paris, 1789; with the Childs Fund, John Donne, Deaths Duell, London, 1632.

EXCHANGES

During the year the Yale University Press has continued its generous policy of putting at the disposal of the Library for exchange from fifty to one hundred copies of many of its publications, including such valuable works as Angell's Recovery of Germany, Howland's Survey of American Foreign Relations, 1929, Wetmore's Index Verborum Vergilianus, etc.; and in addition the Press distributed one hundred sets of the Chronicles of America and the Pageant of America to libraries abroad selected by the University Library. The Transactions of the Connecticut Academy of Arts and Sciences, dissertations, etc., have been distributed on exchange as usual, and in return the Library has received 1,226 monographs, 6,941 serial publications including about four thousand foreign dissertations, 143 "Auszugs," and 30 pamphlets.

THE CATALOGUE

THE number of volumes and pamphlets catalogued was several thousand more than in 1928-29. The arrangement and cataloguing of the Speck Collection of Goetheana was continued, and the work will be finished by the Goethe centenary. A catalogue of Latin American belles-lettres, begun by Professor Luquiens several years ago, is being completed by him and the Library staff and prepared for publication during the next academic year. The reproduction of the author catalogue by photography, with which the Library was experimenting last year, was begun on June 10, and it is estimated that the million cards will be ready by Thanksgiving. The catalogue of the library of the American Oriental Society is at the printers and will be published before Christmas. These special catalogues will be described more fully in my next report.

THE USE OF THE LIBRARY

THE number of volumes borrowed for home use from the University Library was 63,136, and from the Linonia and Brothers, 29,952, making a total of 93,088, or an increase of about eight thousand. The number used in the University Library was 47,134, and in the Reserve Book room, 37,609, a total of 84,743, as compared with a recorded use of 40,673 last year. In no previous year have so many books been used inside the building or lent for outside reading.

EXHIBITIONS

ON account of the crowded condition in the Library and the fact that the available exhibition cases were unprotected at night, few exhibitions were held during the year.

On October 14, 1929, and the following days an exhibition was held in observance of the eightieth anniversary of the death of Edgar Allan Poe. The manuscripts, the first editions, from the Yale collection of American Literature, and books illustrative of the effect Poe had on recent French literature were included in the exhibition.

On February 22, 1930, Alumni Day, an exhibition illustrating rare and unusual gifts and purchases was arranged by Mr. Humphreys.

An exhibition of rare books from the Yale classical collection was arranged for the spring meeting of the New England Classical Association.

According to the custom of the past years, the writings of the members of the classes holding fiftieth and twenty-fifth reunions, as far as they were represented in the Yale Library, were on exhibition during Commencement in the Periodical Reading Room. The main exhibition consisted of a collection of the publications of the past year of the University, its Schools and Departments, and of organizations connected with the University.

Several smaller exhibitions were arranged for various occasions, such as an exhibition relating to Abraham Baldwin, B.A. 1772, the first President of the Board of Trustees of the University of Georgia, held on October 12, 1929, and a selection of Sucre papers, on June 17, 1930.

ADMINISTRATION

THE UNIVERSITY LIBRARY COMMITTEE

ON the recommendation of the Library Committee the Corporation increased the size of the Committee so as to include representatives of a greater number of departments of study. Professors Sizer and Young, whose terms of office expired

June 30, 1930, were reappointed for three years. The additional members of the Committee were Professors A. J. Hill and Charles C. Torrey for two years, and Professors Albert Feuillerat and Leigh Page for three years.

THE STAFF

THE resignations during the year included Miss Jennie V. France, Miss Jane Hawkins, and Mrs. Elsea Stephenson Nims.

The appointments included: Professor Frederick B. Luchians, Curator of Latin Americana, to succeed Senator Hiram Bingham, who resigned; Mr. Henry Emerson Tuttle, B.A. 1914, Curator of Prints, to succeed Mr. Lohmann, who resigned; Miss M. Grace Adams, B.A. Grinnell College, Assistant in the Serial Department; Miss Dorothea Bolton, B.A. Smith College, Cataloguer; Mrs. Gus L. Ford, Assistant in the Circulation Department; Miss Mildred E. Herrick, B.A. Michigan State Normal College, Graduate of the Library School, University of Michigan, Cataloguer; Miss Elisabeth Merklein, Assistant to the Curator of the Speck Collection; Miss Mary E. Meyer, B.A. Swarthmore College, B.S. Drexel Institute, Assistant in the Purchase Department; Miss Dorothea H. Pearson, M.A. Brown University, Assistant Cataloguer; Mrs. Winnifred R. Reid, B.A. Dalhousie University, Cataloguer; Miss Helen Riordon, B.A. Mount Holyoke College, Assistant Cataloguer; Miss Loretta Roche, B.A. Connecticut College, Assistant Cataloguer; Miss Polly Stone, B.A. Agnes Scott College, Assistant in the Purchase Department; Mrs. Constance P. Work, B.A. Grinnell College, Assistant in the Circulation Department.

Mr. May Humphreys, B.A. 1890, head of the Purchase Department for many years, died on June 9, just before the fortieth reunion of his Class. He joined the staff of the Library in September, 1913, as an assistant in book-buying, and became head of the department in 1919, with the rank of Assistant Professor. Mr. Humphreys was a good linguist, read Greek "because he liked it," was widely read, and was particularly interested in English and French history and literature. He had an inborn and cultivated feeling for rare books and good ones, and a knowledge of market values; and many of the finer additions to the Library in the last ten years we owe to his watchful eye and his knowledge of the book trade. Personally he was quiet, retiring, even shy. He loved Yale, and his brothers buried him in New Haven because most of his intimate friends lived here and the happiest years of his life were spent here. In his will he left $5,000 to the Library for the purchase of books, and his classmates, at their reunion in June, started a fund in his memory, the income to be used for books. Some of his other friends in New Haven contributed to purchase a book such as he himself would have chosen for Yale.

STERLING MEMORIAL LIBRARY

DURING the year great progress was made with the new Library building, and by the end of June the stacks were practically ready for the transfer of the books from the various buildings in which they had been housed and in which they had been used under great disadvantage. Careful plans for the moving of the books have been prepared, in consultation with the Department of Engineering and the Bureau of Maintenance, and it is my hope that the first books will be taken to Sterling on July 7, and the last, before college opens on September 25.

FUNDS AND SPECIAL COLLECTIONS IN THE YALE UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

[EXCLUDING COLLECTIONS OF MANUSCRIPTS AND COINS]

HENRY ADAMS FUND, $1,000.

Established July 29, 1926, by gift from Warren Austin Adams, B.A. 1886, in memory of his son, Henry Adams, of the Class of 1925, who died January 28, 1926. Income used for the purchase of books on modern European history.

FRANK ALTSCHUL FUND, $46,703.55.

Established December 10, 1924, by gift of $11,676 from Frank Altschul, B.A. 1908, and increased by further gifts. Income used for the benefit of the University Library; at present used for the purchase of books.

AMERICAN ORIENTAL SOCIETY LIBRARY.

In June, 1853, by an agreement with the American Oriental Society, its library, formerly in Boston, was placed on deposit in the University Library. In October, 1924, the library, now consisting of over 5,000 volumes, was placed on permanent deposit. The Society appoints a librarian for the collection, which is kept as a separate unit in the University Library building. The books are available to members of the Society and to others with the approval of the librarian. The present librarian is Andrew Keogh.

THE LORING W. ANDREWS MEMORIAL LIBRARY.

Established in 1882 by gift of $1,000 from William Loring Andrews, of New York City, in memory of his son, Loring William Andrews, B.A. post-obit 1883. The library consists of textbooks to be lent gratuitously for use throughout the year to students recommended by the Bureau of Appointments. The original gift has been added to from time to time, and the collection is increased by contributions of textbooks made by students. Obsolete textbooks are sold, and the money received is used for the purchase of new books. The additions by gift to the library in the year ending June 30, 1930, were about 250 volumes, and the additions by purchase for the same period were 274 volumes. The total number of textbooks in this collection is about 7,500.

WILLIAM LORING ANDREWS COLLECTION.

In April, 1894, by gift from William Loring Andrews, his collection, consisting of two fifteenth century manuscripts and thirty volumes of early printed books gathered to illustrate the history of printing, became a part of the University Library. A catalogue of the collection has been published: Catalogue of the William Loring Andrews Collection of Early Books in the Library of Yale University. New Haven, Yale University Press, 1913.

HOWARD W. ARNOLD FUND, $1,000.

Established October 17, 1924, by gift from Mrs. Oscar M. Arnold in memory of her son, First Lieutenant Howard W. Arnold, Ph.B. 1914, who died July 28, 1918. Income used for the purchase of books of particular interest to the Sheffield Scientific School.

FRANCIS BACON FUND, $219,174.25.

Established May 19, 1913, by bequest from Francis Bacon, M.D. 1853, who died April 26, 1912. Income used for the maintenance of the Library.

GEORGE W. BALDWIN FUND, $1,000.

Established March 29, 1930, by bequest from George W. Baldwin, B.A. 1843, who died January 23, 1930. Income used for the purchase of books.

OTTO TREMONT BANNARD FUND, $567,141.

Established November 30, 1921, by deed of gift from Otto Tremont Bannard, B.A. 1876, LL.D. 1928, under the temporary designation of 1921 Special Fund, "a Library Fund, the capital of which shall be held and income shall be used for the support and extension of the Library of the University, in all or any of its departments, whether for the purchase of books or other publications, or manuscripts, or for binding, cataloguing, or otherwise defraying the expenses of the Library." Mr. Bannard provided that the income of the Fund should be added to the principal until this should amount to at least $500,000. The income became available to the Library in February, 1929.

D. NEWTON BARNEY FUND, $50,000.

Established December 31, 1927, by gift from D. Newton Barney, B.A. 1881. Income used for the purchase of books.

BEAUMONT MEDICAL CLUB.

On November 1, 1928, the Beaumont Medical Club agreed to deposit in the University Library its library of books, manuscripts, and prints, and any it may acquire hereafter. Such portion of the Club's library as it may be advisable to keep together is shelved as a unit. The collection is administered under the rules of the Library, and printed books may be lent to members of the Club.

HENRY BELIN, JR., FUND, $16,000.

Established in his memory on June 8, 1927, by gifts from members of the family of Henry Belin, Jr., B.A. 1863, who died December 25, 1917. Income used for general purposes of the Library.

HIRAM BINGHAM COLLECTION.

In June, 1907, by gift from Hiram Bingham, B.A. 1898, his collection of about 2,000 volumes and pamphlets relating to the history and geography of South America became a part of the University Library. This collection was supplemented at later dates and in 1916 exceeded 4,500 volumes. A more recent gift is the noteworthy Peruvian collection purchased in 1911 by Senator Bingham from Señor Perez de Velasco. Many books of the latter collection were formerly the property of the Peruvian historian, Manuel de Odriozola.

The entire gift is incorporated with books relating to Latin America owned by the University Library before 1907; with books acquired by purchase and gift from Henry Raup Wagner, B.A. 1884; with a collection presented by Charles William Harkness, B.A. 1883; and with other books acquired by the University Library through purchase, exchange, or gift, to form a Latin American collection, now consisting of over 40,000 volumes.

MIDSHIPMAN JULIAN B. BISHOP FUND, $1,000.

Established June 24, 1912, by gift from William Henry Bishop, B.A. 1867, in memory of his son, Midshipman Julian B. Bishop, who died May 4, 1912, while a student at the United States Naval Academy. Income used for the purchase and care of books under the general head of "Marine Lore."

CHARLES H. BOARD FUND, $2,500.

Established December 10, 1872, by bequest from Charles H. Board, B.A. 1871, who died August 8, 1871. Income used to purchase books on political economy and social science.

BOOCOCK LIBRARY.

Founded June 9, 1896, by gift of a fund from Mrs. Mary C. Boocock as a "contribution to aid in establishing a departmental library in social science for the use of students at Yale." The fund was administered by Professor Sumner until the fall of 1909, when the administration was transferred to Professor Keller. In 1910 the books purchased were deposited in the University Library, where they are now shelved with related books. Each volume has a special book label and bookplate, and a catalogue of the collection is kept by the department. In June, 1930, the Boocock Library included 1,826 volumes, largely on ethnography and anthropology. Duplicates for seminary use are kept in the department.

MATTHEW C. D. BORDEN FUND, $6,000.

Established May 16, 1895, by gift from Matthew C. D. Borden, B.A. 1864. Income used for the purchase of books.

JOY CURTIS BOURNIQUE FUND, $1,000.
